

The University of California, Berkeley
Rhetoric Department Presents

Cosponsored by the International Consortium of Critical Theory Programs

REBRANDING THE HUMAN: ON WYNTER'S CUSTODIAL *POIESIS

---

AXELLE KARERA
THURSDAY, MARCH 3
5-7PM

Axelle Karera received her PhD in Philosophy from Penn State University. Prior to joining Emory University, she was assistant professor of philosophy and African American studies at Wesleyan University. Karera works and teaches at the intersection of 20th century continental philosophy, the critical philosophy of race (particularly Black critical theory), contemporary critical theory, and the environmental humanities.

---

188 DWINELLE HALL
FOR MORE INFO, CONTACT: RFA@BERKELEY.EDU